License agreement and terms of usage

This license agreement is between you (the licensee) and Urs Heckmann, the sole distributor of this patch set. It is based on the common understanding that copyrighted material must not be distributed without the written consent of the copyright holder, and that thus anyone who intends to lend, copy or otheriwse distribute copyrighted material will by common sense read this file before downloading, purchasing or otherwise obtaining the patchset accompanying this license.

1. In order to use this patch set in your musical work you must have purchased a license from Urs Heckmann http://www.u-he.com

2. You must not distribute reverse engineered, resampled, copied or otherwise replicated patches of this patch set in any commercial, free or otherwise product. That includes but is not limited to sample libraries or sample based synthesizers. You can however create such derivates for your own musical work as long as these derivates are only distributed in the context of musical work.

3. The license to XENOS Zebra Energy may not be given away or sold. It can be transferred to a new licensee together with a license for u-he Zebra 2.x though, if both are transferred from the same current licensee to the same new licensee, according to the terms and conditions of the Zebra 2.x license agreement.
